Section M: University of Oxford Scholarships

In this section you can apply for scholarships administered centrally by the University. However, additional funding opportunities may be available through colleges, departments/divisions (www.ox.ac.uk/feesandfunding/fundingsearch/), and external funding bodies (www.ox.ac.uk/feesandfunding/prospectivegrad/scholarships/external/). You must read the relevant online scholarship profile (available at: www.ox.ac.uk/feesandfunding/) for full details and to check your eligibility before completing this section. We will also use the information you provided earlier in your application to help determine your eligibility for these scholarships.

To apply, please tick the box(es) below next to the scholarship(s) that you wish to be considered for. Where a scholarship is marked with a *, you also need to supply additional supporting material with this application. For further details of supporting materials required, see the relevant online scholarship profile. If you do not submit a complete application, by ticking the box or providing any required supporting materials by the deadline for applications, you will not normally be considered for the scholarship.

You must apply for these scholarships by the January deadline used by your programme of study. Late applications will not be accepted.

Clarendon Fund: IMPORTANT NOTE

All applicants who receive an offer for an eligible programme of graduate study will be considered automatically for the Clarendon Fund Scholarship (www.clarendon.ox.ac.uk).

Around half of all Clarendon Scholarships are linked to a specific college or to a partner organisation. If you are awarded a Clarendon Scholarship, we may move your application to a college offering a Clarendon-College scholarship, even if this is not your preferred college.

If you do not wish to have your college preference changed to take up a funding offer, please tick this box:

Section N: Supporting Materials Checklist

Supporting materials are required with all applications.

Check the Application Guide (available at www.ox.ac.uk/graduate/apply) very carefully to ensure that you understand which supplementary materials must accompany your application. You must send all supporting materials by the deadline for your programme. Any delay in sending the correct materials to the Graduate Admissions Office will most probably result in your application not being considered.

If you encounter difficulty in gathering the materials in time for the deadline, please contact the Graduate Admissions Office for advice. We may be able to suggest ways to help you meet our requirements, but only if you contact us well in advance of the application deadline.

COMPULSORY FOR ALL PROGRAMMES OF STUDY:

Section P: Final Checklist

Please confirm that you have:

- Filled out all required sections of the application form
- Gathered together all supporting materials required for your programme of study
- Requested references from your named referees
- Completed 'Appendix A: Ethnic Background'.
- Enclosed the application fee of £50 or provided the payment order number

Please enclose a self-addressed postcard if you wish to receive acknowledgement that your application has arrived. We will send the postcard back to you as soon as we have received and opened your application package. Please note however that this is not a confirmation that your application is complete or that it has arrived on time.

Section Q: Declaration

Once you have completed this application form, please read the following statements carefully. By signing this application form you confirm your acceptance of these statements. If you do not sign this form, we cannot process your application.

- I confirm that the information I have provided on this application form is (to the best of my knowledge) true, accurate, current and complete; and I agree to notify the University promptly if any information contained on this application form should change, in order to keep it true, accurate, current and complete.
- I confirm that all supporting work submitted as part of this application is entirely my own original work, except where clearly indicated otherwise, and does not include any plagiarised elements.

PLEASE NOTE: All admissions decisions taken by the University of Oxford and its Colleges rely on the statements made on the application form and in the supporting materials supplied by you and your referees. This information will be held and used for the purpose of processing your application for study, for student administration and, where relevant, for funding purposes.

If the University, or any College of the University, believes that any information or statement contained on your application form may not be true, accurate, current and complete, or that any material submitted in support of your application may not be entirely your own original work, except where clearly stated otherwise, it may take any necessary steps to verify that information or statement, or to confirm that any supporting material is entirely your own original work, except where clearly stated otherwise.

If, in the opinion of the University, or any College of the University, any information or statement provided on this application form is not true, accurate, current and complete, or any supporting material is not entirely your own original work, except where clearly stated otherwise, the University, or any College of the University, retains the right to reject your application. If you have been made an offer by the University, or any College of the University, then the University, or any College of the University, may in these circumstances withdraw or amend that offer. If you have been admitted as a student, you may be subject to disciplinary action which could result in your expulsion from the University and your College.

In the course of completing this application form, you have provided the University with personal data. The consent set out on the next page explains how this personal data may be processed by the University.

- I consent to the collection, processing and use of relevant personal data by the University, its Colleges and appropriate third parties, some of which may be located overseas (including outside the European Economic Area), for the purposes of processing my application for study, for administration and (where applicable) for funding purposes, subject to the provisions of the Data Protection Act 1998.
- I understand that such personal data may be used and shared with third parties, some of which may be located overseas (including outside the European Economic Area), for the purposes of verifying my identity, qualifications, work experience, references and any submitted work. Where I apply for funding through the University, my personal data may be shared with third parties relevant to that funding application.
- I understand that the University, or any College of the University, will normally only discuss my application with me, unless I have nominated a third party agent on my application form.
- The University uses advanced tools and systems to assist in the detection of plagiarism. I understand that, in order for the University to use such systems, my work and personal data (normally name, email address, course details and institution) may be submitted to the plagiarism detection service to which the University has subscribed. I understand that my personal data may be stored electronically in a database and may be processed in countries not governed by EU data protection legislation. I also understand, however, that any company processing my data will be bound by the terms of its contract with the University to abide by the UK Data Protection Act 1998 at all times. I understand that my personal data and the content of my work will not be disclosed without my permission to academic staff in other institutions which are subscribed to the plagiarism detection service.
- I understand that if I become a registered student, any personal data collected by the University as a result of my application will form part of my student record.

Please sign below to confirm acceptance of these statements:
